Loomis faces serious challenges in a region that's exploding with growth and development. Experience matters. We need leaders who can fight for Loomis so developers can't take advantage of us. Inexperience on our council and staff turnover has made Loomis vulnerable. I have been approached by concerned citizens and business community leaders to lead our town again by utilizing my leadership, pertinent experience, and professionalism. I worked hard on the General Plan and know what's needed to protect our community. I will fight for balanced growth which preserves our small-town charm. My priorities are public safety and improving roads and traffic. I am fiscally responsible. I am committed to protecting the financial integrity of Loomis and being a good steward of your taxpayer dollars. I will always stand up for Loomis and protect our small town like it's a big family. Vote for me to get an experienced, fiscally responsible leader who'll fight for you. Contact Jan: (916) 871-2431, janforloomis@gmail.com, Website www.janforloomis.com.	CANDIDATE STATEMENT LOOMIS TOWN COUNCIL Name: JAMES "DANNY" CARTWRIGHT Age: 56 Occupation: Loomis Town Councilman Education and Qualifications: I am a regular blue collar guy, not a slick politician. I work in the trades under the sun everyday: dirty hands, clean money. As your mayor in 2023, I wrote a strong statement reassuring residents the town would cooperate in any potential investigation regarding child grooming from Loomis exposed by Project Veritas. I chaired two subcommittees of our 20 year general plan update and voted to pass it. I voted for outlawing drug needle distribution within Loomis and fought against the attempts to weaken our law. After interviewing Wes Heathcock, I voted to hire him as our town manager. I was part of the settlement negotiation team regarding Rocklin's lawsuit to stop our Costco. I strongly support our town manager in his efforts to rebuild our financial department and continually encourage fiscal responsibility; we have a balanced budget with a small surplus. I am endorsed by Congressman Kevin Kiley, Assemblyman Joe Patterson, and many local leaders. I'm excited to continue protecting the conservative values of Loomis. With your vote and support, we will keep our town the way you love it. I respectfully ask for your vote. CartwrightForTownCouncil2024.com
