

CANDIDATE STATEMENT
ROSEVILLE CITY COUNCIL, DISTRICT 5

Name: NICK BUSSE

Age: 38

Occupation: Veterans Advocate/Nonprofit CEO

Education and Qualifications: Dear Neighbor,

My name is Nick Busse, and I'm running for Roseville City Council to ensure our community remains safe, vibrant, family-friendly, and prepared for growth.

My wife, Maggie, and I have four children, ages preschool to middle school, giving me a personal stake in our city's future, and I'm deeply committed to its prosperity.

As a 13-year U.S. Army combat veteran with two tours in Iraq, I bring discipline, leadership, and dedication to service.

I work for a national company dedicated to creating job opportunities for veterans, and I lead a nonprofit supporting veterans, first responders, and youth.

I hold a Business degree and graduated from the Roseville Chamber of Commerce Leadership Class. I'm also a proud West Park Junior Panthers Cheer parent.

As your City councilmember, I will ensure District 5 experiences well-planned growth to meet our community's needs. I will always be fair, selfless, accessible, and lead with integrity.

I'm honored to be endorsed by Vice Mayor Krista Bernasconi, Councilmember Pauline Roccucci, and numerous school board members, elected officials, community leaders, and former mayors.

To learn more about my vision for Roseville, go to BusseforCityCouncil.com, or call me directly at 916.533.2044.

Thank you, and I appreciate your vote on November 5.

Nick